Parks and Rec. will receive $220 for non-fayette resident fees. Insurance is due for about $787. Anne and Maureen will work together to create a new template for the treasurer's report.
3. Repairs
 - a. A Abby completed their work on the drainage issues and have been paid $1,840 as agreed. More grass seed will be spread to halt further erosion.
 - b. McIntyre fencing completed repairs to the rear and side fences as well as additional damage done by another downed tree – totaling $1,255.50.
 - c. Spigot replacement: PTC Public Works installed the new spigot but the cement patch was water damaged so we will repair when weather permits
 - d. Signage – new signs were installed and paid for. Two more are being ordered.
4. Holiday gifts for Public Works will be assembled and delivered by Anne.

New Business:

1. We voted to install Bryant Goss as our Vice-President until our upcoming election.
2. SurveyMonkey is being considered as a venue to allow online voting of our membership.
3. Agreement with PTC: we discussed and reviewed changes to our agreement which will be further amended and signed within the next month.
4. We will contact KPTCB to see if they can help with sweeping or picking up trash for a few hours on occasion.
5. We agreed to purchase toys for the dog park and set a $100 limit per person on purchases of tennis balls and other toys.

Meeting Adjourned at 8:07 pm.
